The sole issue in this Report and Recommendation is whether Karen Marie Collier (“Plaintiff”) should be required to pay the filing fee, or whether Plaintiff’s financial condition justifies waiver of the payment. Plaintiff has commenced this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) requesting review of the Commissioner of Social Security’s decision denying her application for disability benefits. All pretrial proceedings in this matter were referred to the undersigned pursuant to Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2)(a) (D.S.C.). For the reasons that follow, the undersigned recommends denying Plaintiff’s request for indigent status.

I. Procedural Background

Plaintiff filed an Application to Proceed in District Court without Prepaying Fees or Costs (Form AO-240). [Dkt. # 4]. In the Form AO-240, Plaintiff states that, in the past twelve months she received money from pensions, annuities or life insurance payments in the amount of $2600 a month. Id. at 1. Plaintiff also indicates that she has $3000 in a checking or savings account, owns a home valued at $160,000 and has three cars with a total value of $22,700. Plaintiff states her 401K is worth $9000. Plaintiff lists no dependents. Id.

II. Discussion

Grants or denials of applications to proceed in forma pauperis are left to the discretion of federal district courts. See Dillard v. Liberty Loan Corp., 626 F.2d 363, 364 (4th Cir. 1980). However, there is no clear precedent in the Fourth Circuit concerning a magistrate judge's authority to issue an order denying an application to proceed in forma pauperis.¹ The Sixth Circuit has concluded that a magistrate judge cannot issue an order to deny an application to proceed in forma pauperis. Woods v. Dahlberg, 894 F.2d 187 (6th Cir. 1990). Specifically, the Woods court ruled that a denial of an application to proceed in forma pauperis by a magistrate judge is the functional equivalent of an involuntary dismissal, which cannot be granted by a magistrate judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(A). Id. at 187. The Tenth and Fifth Circuits have reached similar conclusions. See Lister v. Dep't of the Treasury, 408 F.3d 1309, 1312 (10th Cir. 2005); Donaldson v. Ducote, 373 F.3d 622, 623–25 (5th Cir. 2004). Therefore, the undersigned submits a Report and Recommendation to preserve Plaintiff's opportunity to obtain de novo review by a district judge on objections.

A litigant is not required to show that she is completely destitute in order to qualify as an indigent within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). Adkins v. E.I. Du Pont de Nemours & Co., 335 U.S. 331, 337–44 (1948). However, the “privilege to proceed without posting security for costs and fees is reserved to the many truly impoverished litigants who . . . would remain without legal remedy if such privilege were not afforded to them.” Brewster v. North Am. Van Lines, Inc., 461 F.2d 649, 651 (7th Cir. 1972). In Carter v. Telectron, Inc., 452 F. Supp. 939 (S.D. Tex. 1976), the court enunciated three legal tests used to determine whether a person should proceed in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915:

- (1) Is the litigant barred from the federal courts by the reason of her “impecunity”?
- (2) Is her access to the courts blocked by the imposition of an undue hardship?
- (3) Is the litigant forced to contribute her last dollar, or render herself destitute, to prosecute her claim?

Id. at 943; see also Abbot v. Comm’r of Social Security, C/A No. 4:10-2253-JFA-TER, 2010 WL 4226151, at *1 (D.S.C. Sept. 17, 2010); Schoenfeld v. Donaghue, C/A No. 4:07-617-RBH, 2007 WL 1302659, at *3 (D.S.C. May 2, 2007).

Upon review of the information before the court, and mindful of the tests set forth in Carter, it does not appear that Plaintiff would be rendered destitute by paying the filing fee of $400 (including a $50 administrative fee), nor is there any indication that requiring payment of the filing fee would impose an undue hardship or effectively block Plaintiff’s access to the courts. See Carter, 452 F. Supp. at 942 (holding Plaintiff was not indigent because he had the right to collect a judgment of $5,486.76); see also Ali v. Cuyler, 547 F. Supp. 129 (E.D. Pa. 1982) (finding $450.00 in savings sufficient to allow the plaintiff to pay the filing fee of $60.00 without foregoing basic human needs). Therefore, the undersigned recommends Plaintiff’s Application to Proceed in District Court without Prepaying Fees or Costs [Dkt. # 4] be denied.

III. Conclusion and Recommendation

For the foregoing reasons, it is recommended that the district judge deny Plaintiff's Application to Proceed in District Court without Prepaying Fees or Costs.
